PHILIP MARLOWE, PRIVATE EYE

Five One-Hour Raymond Chandler Classics

Shadowy, seamy, violent back-alley Los Angeles of the 1930s comes vividly to life in crackling new, original mystery dramas. Emmy Award-winner Powers Boothe plays the ace detective created by the writer who turned gumshoe fiction into literature. A tough but innocent eye in a corrupt world, Marlowe himself is the focus of this limited series exclusively on HBO.

HBO Only!

Smart-Aleck Kill

Glamorous, very treacherous Hollywood characters challenge Marlowe when he investigates the mysterious death of a movie star. Sinister intrigue lurks behind the facade of respectability in this tale of power and decadence. April 16, 19, 21

Finger Man

When Marlowe becomes the prime suspect in the sudden death of a city official, he is forced to be on the run. A fast-action drama of big-time deals and small-time hoods. Bill Kearns plays his pal "Violets" McGee. April 23, 26, 28

The Pencil

What does it mean when a pencil arrives mysteriously in the mail? Marlowe knows. And it's not good news for his current client as he confronts syndicate hit men while guarding a gangster marked for death. A thriller! April 30

...and next month

Don't miss The King in Yellow and Nevada Gas as Philip Marlowe, Private Eye continues in May. This exclusive limited series, based on original TV productions of Raymond Chandler classics, premieres on successive Saturday nights beginning April 16.
